

THE OFFICIAL FAMILY MANUAL
ZOOM MEETINGS DURING COVID-19

PHONE HOME

MADE WITH LOVE,
CHRIS

Let's face it,

the last meeting could have been better.

This manual is to prevent that from happening again.

Thank you to my Tia Clara for offering her account.

The intention was to co-host together because she has an unlimited option with her account. However, the account wasn't working on my end and I couldn't sign in.

40 minutes is enough though.

If I'm going to host from now on
during COVID-19,
I'm going to need
some commitments on both ends...

Before I share the commitments, here's the main intention of the meetings...

The main intention of each session is to feed our faith during the COVID-19 pandemic to keep us strong, calm, connected, and inspire us to be even more useful for others.

What do I mean
feed our faith?

Whether it's through the prayers we do, the words we share, our holy actions, or just by our presence, all of the above is to keep our faith intact during this pandemic.

Here's my commitment:

Send the link and password every Saturday night.

Have something new on the agenda every Sunday to keep things fresh.

Facilitate the meetings by managing the noise and keep us focused.

Here's the commitment

I need from you:

The 5-minute rule. Be on time with, and only with a 5-minute grace period. We will start promptly five minutes after the meeting time. Time is precious.

If any tasks are to be done for the week, get them done.

Be ready with something to share, whether it's an inspiring story, beautiful prayer, or loving thought.

Loving humor and joy are welcome, sarcasm please keep it out of the meeting.

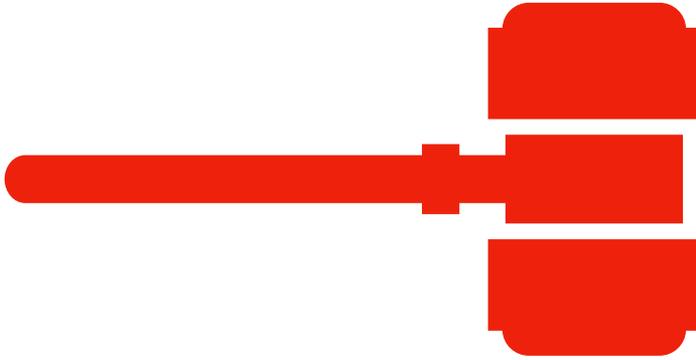

That's it.

Please hold me accountable and
I'll do the same for you.

Any suggestions to improve something or implement something new, feel free to email me or *call.

* I have text notifications turned off on my phone. Why? It helps me focus during the day. I usually check texts during the late evenings.

I

Print Name:

agree with these commitments in order to make these meetings
worth it with our family.

Signature: