Thinkeé #2: POVIZE

Category: Fairy Dust

How to Say It: PO-V-EYE-Z

Meaning: POV=Point of View Suffix -ize=To make or convert into

Usefulness: 8 out of 10

Super Power: To explore different points of view in a story

Why?

Possibility #1: For more understanding, less confusion

Possibility #2: Explore different models of the world in order to reflect on your own perceptions, which can lead to personal upgrades.

Possibility #3: Create new, spin-off stories

How to Use It:

1. Explore your chosen content
2. Decide to POVIZE for a purpose
3. Pick a character, especially someone not in the limelight
4. POVIZE it! In other words, explore their experience of the world (their goals, needs, beliefs, qualities, assumptions, habits, and so forth).
5. Accomplish your purpose

Example:

1. Read a news article
2. After finishing the story, decide to POVIZE it for a purpose (Possibilities: for curiosity, to make an expanded evaluation of the situation, or to create a new story)
3. Pick another person who is not the main focus in the story
4. POVIZE it by exploring their world
5. Accomplish your purpose and see where it leads

Possible Misuse of Super Power:

1. Too much exploration of others that can lead to confusion
2. Misunderstandings of other characters in the story
3. No point in the exploration

So ask yourself, what if I  POVIZE IT?
